

Using the yellow glow at the side of the artboard as your light source, fill each shape with a standard fill or gradient to show where the light is coming from. Also, give each shape a shadow with a fill or gradient. Leave this minimized on your desktop. I'll come around and check for understanding.

Light Source

